WHIRLIGIG

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF GREENSBORO SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

irginia Powell is one of those rare personalities capable of having two duties at once . . . and doing each successfully. No student ever had a teacher more sincerely interested in each individual, and certainly no yearbook ever had a more versatile adviser.

She plans and organizes thoughtfully and carefully after long hours of consideration.

She manages competently with genuine understanding for those who work beside her.

She criticizes and advises graciously, never losing sight of the wishes of her staff.

And so we look no further for the one most worthy to receive this dedication. The honor is naturally hers.

LET US CONSIDER

Have you ever paused for a moment to think of the things you will miss when you leave Senior High? You probably remember first your varied social and extra-curricular activities, and last your all-important curricular work. All three go together to help you develop a well-rounded personality. After these thoughts have passed, others may linger. You hear the sharp clang of the three-thirty bell and the thunder of a thousand feet beating on steel-tipped steps. You hear gleeful good-byes and the click of a combination lock ending another day. Then in the silence of empty halls, an echo warms your heart: "All hail to thee, our Alma Mater strong!" You are a special part of Senior. In the following pages, school life is a program revolving around you, and enriching your life.

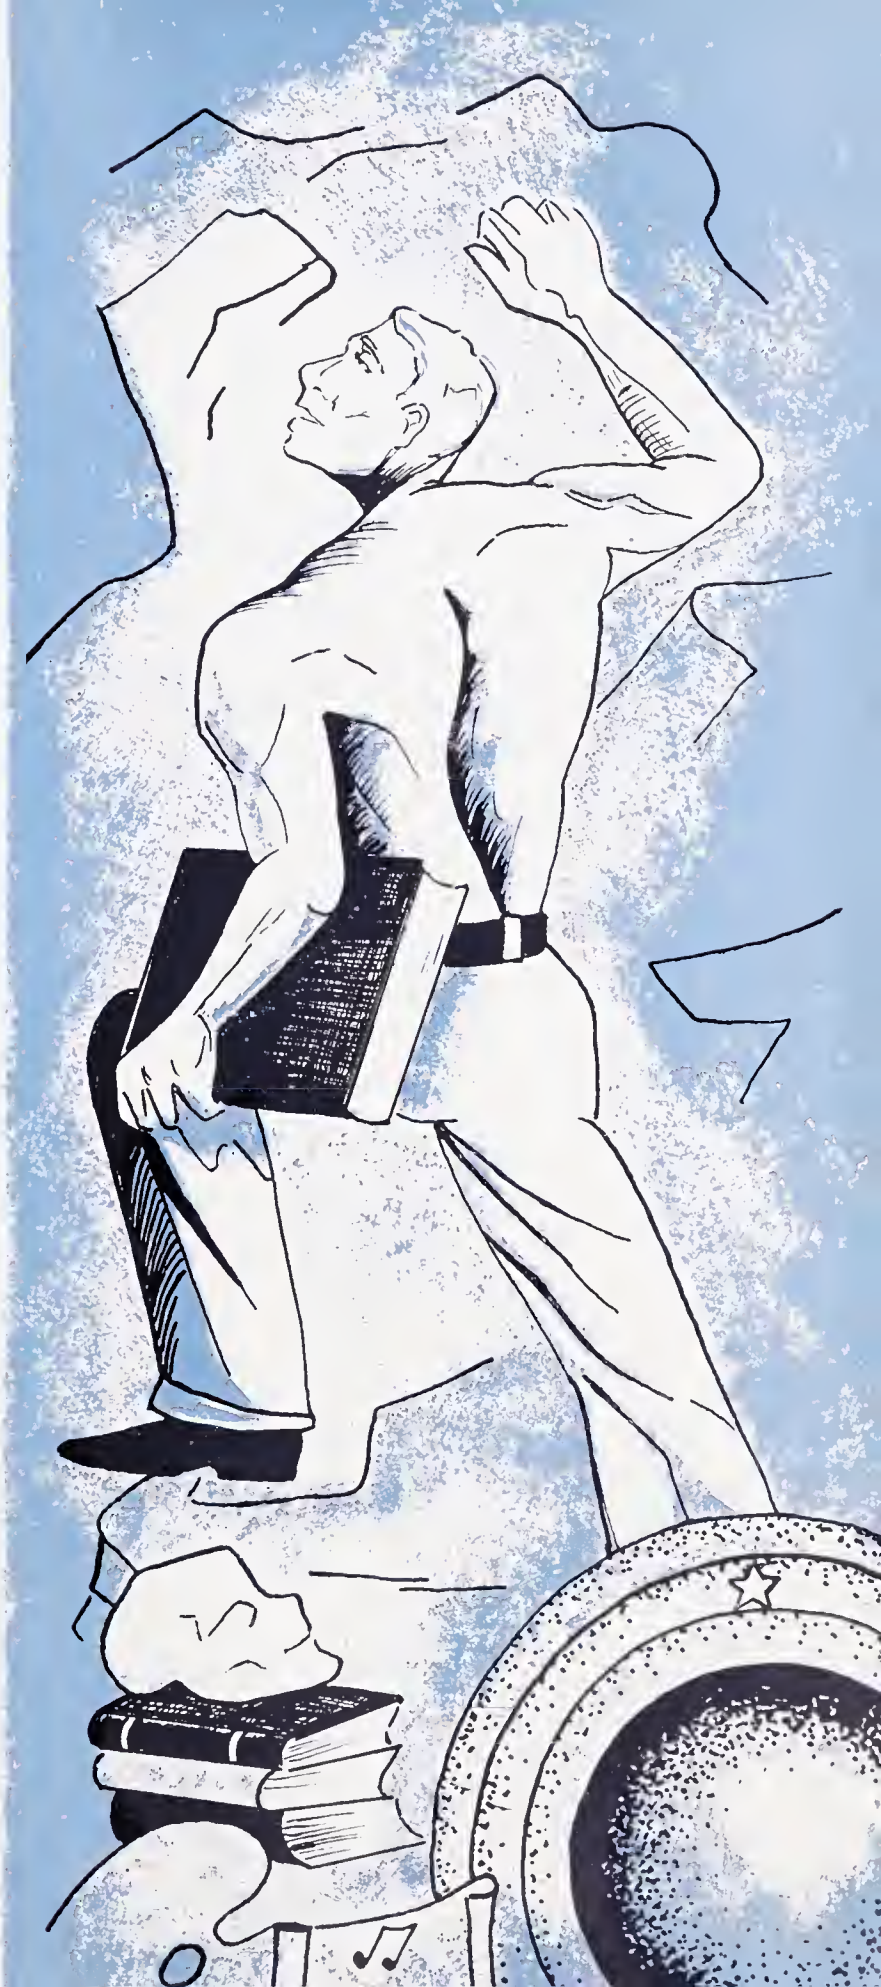
CURRICULAR

All of us were not honor students, nor did we direct traffic, or work in the library. But for each of us there were those thought-provoking lessons and exercises that trained us to reason. We often looked forward eagerly to good times, but we realize that it was the curricular work which gave us the opportunity to enrich our minds and to prepare ourselves for a constructive life.



Administering Schools
In Vision, Judgment and Planning

MR. BEN L. SMITH

Guiding and Advising Are Their Business . . .

Mr. L. W. Anderson, Assistant Principal, and Miss Mary Ellen Blackmon, Dean of Students, help to formulate school policies and help keep every student in school every day.

FACULTY

Whether appointed, elected or merely requested, teachers have taken on many jobs besides their regular class work. They supervised extra-curricular activities; helped with clubs, dances, projects; applauded at ball games, plays, concerts—supporting other people's activities as well as their own. They even found time to give occasional parties for new or departing teachers. Their resiliency and enthusiasm are basic in Senior's well-rounded program.

Home and School Cooperate

We are fortunate that our Parent-Teacher Association was always so willing and anxious to help students in every possible way. No one could ever have shown more concern than the officers and committee members who gave so much of their time and thought to helping improve home and school relationships. The board of officers and committee chairmen held luncheon meetings every month to plan for ways to arouse greater interest in our school and to bring the parents into closer contact with the teachers of their children. They contributed funds for Social Standards Day, College Day, Whirligig, mid-winter and graduation dances; they awarded a bond to a senior chosen by his classmates for a special award. They also served by leading panel discussions on Social Standards Day and by chaperoning various dances. For these and many other kindnesses we, the students, say "Thank you!"

Above is Mr. Fred Carlson, President of the P.T.A. Below: the officers and committee chairmen at one of their frequent luncheon meetings served by Miss York's home economics classes. Left to right, first table: Mrs. A. K. Maness, First Vice-President; Mrs. H. S. Godwin; Mrs. Philip Hammond, Secretary; Mr. C. F. Carlson, President. Left table: Mrs. Herbert Falk, Mrs. G. W. Turner, Mrs. John Redhead. Center table: Mrs. G. E. Gregg, Mrs. R. D. Farrell, Mrs. Ben Rogers, Mrs. C. C. Bell. Background: Miss Mary E. Blackmon, Miss Lucille Browne, Treasurer; Mr. Ort Jenkins, Mr. A. P. Routh, Bill Greene. Absent: Mrs. Dan McConnell, Second Vice-President and Program Chairman; Mrs. W. P. Holt.

Lessons In Living
Help Seniors Face The Future

At last that longed-for day came when those students deserving the honor took their places in the center auditorium seats to start their last and best year at Senior. Each day left memories of fun and work, but perhaps some will be remembered longer than others. There were blue and white ribbons sold by the Senior Class before each football game that gave the whole school a feeling of "team" spirit. All the "Belvedere" fans turned out for "Dreamboat," sponsored by the Seniors to help raise money for their $300 contribution to Whirligig. A successful Christmas card sale added to Senior Class funds. The Christmas Pageant, a Senior Class production, was presented in beautiful tableaux with music, of which the Waring Pennsylvanians might well be proud, by all vocal groups combined. The fondest memories of all are the annual trip to Washington where Seniors saw famous sights and rode the roller-coaster. Graduating Seniors will remember not only their last year, but each outstanding experience of their life in high school.

Senior officers are Alice White, Vice-President; Jimmy Armstrong, President; John Sanvajot, Treasurer; Miss Maunida Wales, Adviser; Frances Hosley, Secretary.

In Mr. Illman's art classes, art is everything from weaving to fashion designing, from clay modeling to finger painting. Members of Mrs. Blanche Smith's world history class, below, make their bulletin board emphasize United Nations Week.

Lessons In Art, Government,

Religion and Science

In Mrs. Randolph's Bible classes the lessons learned by the ancient Hebrews are applied to problems of our own time. Below: Miss Hall's chemistry students test and analyze all sorts of compounds, trying to make easier that dreaded spring task of finding "unknowns."

Junior Responsibilities Prepare Them for Senior Leadership

"Who made those blue and white shakers that were waved about in the stands at football games? Why, the Junior Class of course." Their "Shaker" sale boosted school spirit in addition to making possible a $200 contribution to Whirligig. With the assistance of Mrs. Darnell, class adviser, the Juniors presented their annual Thanksgiving program, beginning with an oration by Forbes Ramsey on Democracy and a typical neighborhood scene of Americans and foreigners chatting together. Then part of the history of the United States was portrayed, including the first Thanksgiving and Indian dance. Glee Club Music ended the program. Juniors even helped bring the spirit of Christmas to Senior by selling wrapping paper. Yes, the Juniors have much to remember; but they have even more to look forward to in their new role as Seniors.

Junior Class officers are Mary Leonard, Secretary; Stewart Colson, Vice-President; Mrs. Dorothy Darnell, Adviser; Jimmy Griggs, Treasurer; Barbara Massey, President.

Practical Science Demonstrated . . .

"This, girls, is where you install your 'hot-heads.' I'll show you how to install dual exhaust pipes a little later. After that, I'll teach you how to drive," Officer Williamson tells one of the driving classes. In the lower picture one of Mr. Johnson's physics classes is busy testing profound theories.

Knee deep in sawdust, Mr. Taylor's wood working class slaves away. From all this measuring, hammering, sawing and planing come some very fine results.

Their Hardest Year Mastered, Sophomores Face Greater Opportunities

The brunt of many an upper classman's joke is the "lowly sophomore." "Can't you even open a combination lock?" "I told you the band room was on the Science Building third floor." "You mustn't miss the delectable hash served in the cafeteria." "When you get to be Seniors, you can use the elevator." The Sophomore year is a kind of initiation to Senior High. This Class of 1955 came through with flying colors. The Sophomores sold gold pins bearing the letters G.H.S. and the student's graduation year. Senior High students filled the Carolina Theatre for "Across the Wide Missouri," sponsored by the Sophomore Class. Proceeds from the sale of tickets went toward their $200 contribution to Whirligig. After a year of fun and hard work combined, these Sophomores have proved that they are well prepared to begin their junior year.

If you need any parts for your car, see James Lester. He works in the parts department for a local automobile dealer.

Selling Trains Personality, Business Sense

The D. E. Club, one of three national organizations at Senior is affiliated with D. E. Clubs of America. Piedmont District clubs met in October this year and the state convention, to which the local club annually plays host, met on February 27-28. The annual Bosses' Banquet, given with the D. O. classes, made March 19 another big day.

The D. E. Club met every Thursday morning and at other times for field trips and parties. There were always interesting programs, planned by Bobbie Jean Wray and her committee. James Lester acted as chairman of the steering committee for the Bosses' Banquet. Field trips to a rayon plant, a department store window-dressing, a bakery, a dairy, and many others arranged by Mrs. Hodden, stand out in this year's valuable experiences.

D. E. enables students who have special abilities to apply them profitably. Here Otis Davis is doing expert lettering for a sign company where he works.

These D. O.'ers Master Today's Office Procedures

No wonder these second period D. O. students in office practice look happy. They are on their way to a job where they earn while they learn.

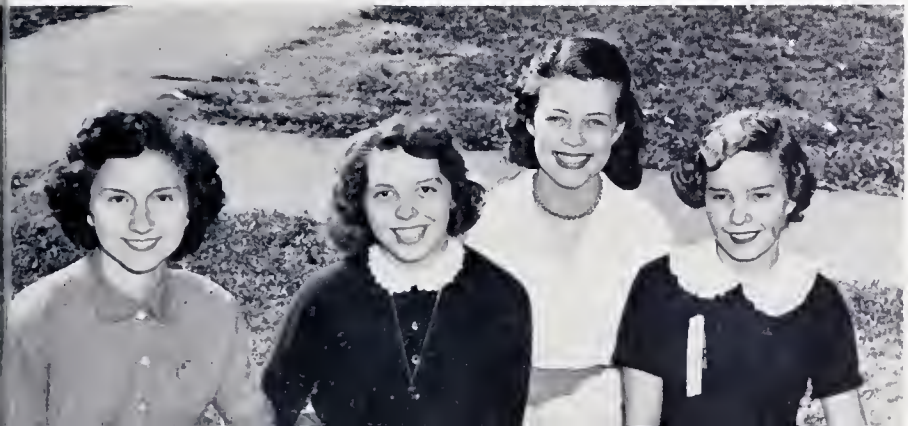
D. O. was a succession of sensations for the office practice classes. There was relief and pride over Shirley's, Anne's, and Becky's new rings. There was more pride, and a feeling of responsibility that came with the hostess ribbons worn on College Day. For lone Duncan there was frustration from never getting a word in; and for everyone, the satisfaction of having Modena and her rubber car of endless capacity. The basketball game was fun, but painful in spots. Post-practice odors of liniment made it clear why the game had to be postponed another day. Orchids sent by appreciative bosses for the banquet turned out to be shamrocks; and the banquet itself was full of thrills after the hard work of planning, making program booklets and decorating.

The third period class chose these officers: Lora Ann Gregory, Treasurer; Charlotte Evans, President; Rebecca Hambrick Starbuck, Secretary; Glenda Cox, Vice-President.



Betty Cox gets her office practice in concentrated form, for in the principal's office where she works jobs are many and varied.

Mr. Thorpe Jones stands at the back of his second period class in trades. Class members are, front row: Burt Ozment, R. A. Murchison, Jr. Second row: Jean Barricks, Kenneth Barber, David Jenkins, A. F. Howell, Alton Hall. Third row: Pattie Apple, Jean Hooks, Jerry Wheeler, Warren Hodgin, Jack Marsh, Bob Purgason.

Remembering diversified occupations, Mr. Jones's trades groups think about more diversified items than mere jobs. Field trips like the one to Buggs Island Dam stand out. So do the D. O. Club meetings, and especially the Bosses' Banquet. Earning while they learned and getting all that excellent experience on their record before graduation were enough to make the D. O. program a big success for this group.

The third period class elected Albert Vaughn, Secretary-Treasurer; Milton Alderfer, President; and Tommy Neal, Vice-President.

Talmadge Hobbs has a part-time job as a spinner at a textile plant in Greensboro.

Classes in Trades Produce Tomorrow's Craftsmen

These Future Home-makers Get Practical Experience

Ummm! What delicious odors drift from the Home Economics kitchen. Those fortunate enough to attend this luncheon on Social Standards Day are speakers and Student Council members.

G.H.S. Policemen and Bus Drivers Cope With Traffic of Different Kinds

Traffic Squad

"Sorry, Mr. Glenn, only cute girls can go down the 'up' stairs," apologized a member of the hard-working traffic squad. Early in the fall, meetings were held with Mr. Darnell, Adviser, and Jim Kellam, Traffic Chief, to "brief" squad members on regulations, and to assign individual posts. Constantly on duty, rain or shine, the boys made it possible to madly dash from class to lunch in complete safety.

Wheel Club

Wheel Club officers discuss annoying back-seat-drivers. They are Bill Kellam, Vice-President; A. L. Coble, Secretary-Treasurer; Jimmy Fields, President.

"Hey! let's stop this 'Greyhound' at Guilford Dairy for a milkshake," shouted mischievous back-seat-drivers; but Mr. Anderson's Wheel Clubbers were trained with safety as their foremost thought. Dependable drivers traveled 318 miles each day to transport students to and from G.H.S. In spite of mud, traffic, and "flats," the thirteen buses followed their appointed schedules with amazing success.

EXTRA CURRICULAR

How proud of your school would you be if there were no drama or music groups to applaud, no publications to enjoy, no ball teams to cheer—nothing whatsoever to offer extra-curricular opportunities? By loyal support and enthusiastic participation, you have wholeheartedly accepted Senior's excellent program. By taking an active part, you have enriched not only friendships and memories, but character as well.

Under Our Student Council

Democracy Is at Work

"Is there anything you want me to take back to council?" This question after every weekly report by a council member in each homeroom opened the way for suggestions, complaints or problems that needed airing. In this way every student could be heard and every valid problem discussed and solved, if possible, by the council at its Tuesday afternoon meetings. These discussions were often heated, always animated, and always driven by a deep concern for the ideas and problems of all the students.

"I challenge you to emphasize a system of honesty in your life." Dr. Claud B. Bowen, in his Social Standards Day keynote address, gave G.H.S. students a goal to strive for in every-day life.

The council was behind . . . and in the midst of . . . several of the biggest events during the year. They get the credit for placing benches around the campus, sponsoring and decorating for school dances, holding the nominating convention and the school election, and especially for Social Standards Day.

On October 17 our first Social Standards Day in two years was held. Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Browne, Mary Henrie Arthur, and Jimmy Powell headed a committee to choose a theme, plan the program and secure speakers and panel leaders. On the day chosen every student heard speeches and joined discussion groups about problems that concern teenagers especially. The theme for these discussions was from Hamlet:

"This above all: To thine own self be true."

In considering this theme of being our best selves, everyone was eager to work out better relationships between himself and home, school, church, and fellow students. For an immediate improvement in social relations at school, there was a faculty-student ball game after lunch, with the players in comic costumes. Afternoon homeroom discussions summarized the day's highlights and gave students further points to consider in setting their own standards higher.

"When does helping end and cheating begin?" asks one of the students at the forum on School-Student relationship.

"No, boys, State does not have a girls' campus like Duke's," answers Mr. W. L. Mayer, State representative. With Mr. Mayer is Mr. E. G. Thurlow, also from State, to answer part of the countless questions.

College Days Meets an Urgent Need for Many Seniors

All day Mr. C. W. Phillips, genial and very successful recruiter for Woman's College, answers questions from throngs of interested girls.

The torch-hearers of the organization are Joe LeBaner, Vice-President; John Sauvajot, Treasurer; Joyce Lee, President; Miss Sara Mims, Adviser; Virginia Ann Redhead, Secretary.

Leaders in Scholarship, Character and Service

Eleven times that autumn morning the strains of "Ava Maria" filled the suspense-packed auditorium, as veteran "torchbearers" sought out thirteen new members. There was a tap on each shoulder and a candle thrust into each hand, trembling and damp from hope and suspense. That tap represented the reward for endless planning, studying, serving.

That tap was the beginning of added responsibility. Torchlight members, along with D. O. students, arranged College Day and acted as hosts on that day. They met each week and carried out various useful projects. In the spring they helped to choose and tap new members. They climaxed their year by giving their always-successful Talent Show.

The Future Teachers of America are, first row. Helgesen, Zager, Eways, Hargrove, Hosley, Hutchison, Jones, Kinsey, Bateman, Addison, N. J. Smith, Arthur, Dyer. Second row: N. Smith, R. Bach, Neerman, Garner, Whittington, Hart, Gourley, Goodnight, Wall, Shelburne, Rierson, V. Williams, Walker. Third row: Stafford, Barringer, Brooks, M. Some Shared an Interest in Becoming Teachers . . .

The Future Teachers are headed by Alice White, President; Julia Hollowell, Vice-President; Kitten Barringer, Secretary-Treasurer; Betsy Walker, Program Director.

Ben L. Smith FTA Club

The Ben L. Smith Club of Future Teachers of America, organized in January, 1952, had grown to ninety members by the fall. Special programs were planned for their meetings and silver pins bearing the FTA insignia were ordered. On October 18, Mr. L. W. Anderson, their adviser, and several members attended a state-wide conference of FTA at Duke University, where they heard discussions of the problems facing teachers of the future.

Playmasters

The Speech and Dramatics Classes under the able direction of Miss Mozelle Causey have had an interesting year. First on the fall calendar was the presentation of January Thaw, a three act play which was immediately followed by a "Clark-burger party" for the entire cast. During the winter months the "I Speak for Democracy" contest was held, while Spring featured three one-act plays produced by the Senior, Junior and Sophomore Classes. Attendance of the Drama Festival held in Chapel Hill, providing both entertainment and education, rounded out a very successful and enjoyable '52-'53 season.

Radio Shows, Speech Contests for Fluency and Poise

Greensboro Public Schools' own radio station is located at Senior High, under the technical supervision of Mr. Dale Keller. Milton Alderfer, program director, and Miss Mozelle Causey, superviser of all broadcasting, wait for the cameraman to leave so they can start their broadcast. W.G.P.S.

EUTERPE SYMPHONIA

Symphonia members meet each month and take part in musical programs planned to further develop appreciation of music. They are, first row, Carolyn Bass, Kitty Holt, Mary Davis, Claire Jacoby, Mary Ruth Mitchell, Sandra Dyer, Betty Farrell, Chris Velonis, Margot Hammond. Second row: Lois Duncan, Unita Pope, Bobbie Holler, Barbara Rosser, Betsy Walker, Joanne Osborne, Ann Hunter, Kate Wharton, Alice White, Ann Carlson, Pat Gregg. Standing: Fritz Apple, Bill Micheal, Cynthia Bivins, Jan Rankin, George Bartholomew, Anna Huffine, Alan Tuttle, Henrietta Reed, Virginia Redhead, Katheryn Jackson, Betty Bell, Jimmy Armstrong.

All American Present a Year

"With pictures like these we ought to make All-American again this year!" agree Bettie Jane Upchurch, Assistant Editor; Miss Virginia Powell, Adviser; and Pat Gregg, Editor-in-chief, as they look over some of Mr. Martin's latest informal shots.

Aspirants in Our Lives

Martha Jordon, Business Manager; and Barbara Jamieson, Assistant Business Manager, smile with satisfaction as their books finally balance.

WHIRLIGIG

If you happened to drop by the Whirligig room between September and February, you must have been bewildered by the state of things. David, encouraged by Martha's and Barbara's slogan, "Bigger ads—more money," probably hurried by on his way to flash that "Give us some money" smile. After wading through Ann Hobbs' erasure pile, you found yourself watching Robert and Stewart mount pictures, Robert confiding details of his latest conquest. You decided Robert's affairs were none of your business; so you moved toward Miss Powell's desk, when all at once she insisted, "You couldn't possibly have found that over there. I left it right here, I tell you!" Then Bettie Jane apologized, "Well, you see, I took it home to work on, but my dog got sick and . . ." No one would let you see what Sylvia and Anne were drawing, so you started out. Pat stopped you with, "Did you bring anything to eat?" As you finally left, Margot, Ann Hunter, John, or Bob glanced up from their writing and shoved a picture at you, saying, "Identify the fifth boy in the second row with his head behind that tree." You shook your head in dismay and began to understand why we, the Whirligig staff, might be proud if this 1953 edition ever materialized. In November, Bettie Jane took the advice of Mr. Brightman, our engraving genius, and flew with Miss Powell to the National Scholastic Press Conference in Chicago. They came home brimming over with information and ideas that insure the success of next year's Whirligig. On January thirtieth, when Mr. Fleming took the dummy to Charlotte, each of us felt that a part of our lives was being sent to press. We only hope that in years to come you will turn these pages and relive your memories.

Being photography editors for as big a deal as our yearbook reqnires is one grand snarl of details—checking, making appointments, reminding, arranging people in rows, arranging people out of rows, checking, reminding. Lois Duncan and Dottie Foster, after four months of it, grew to be part camera.

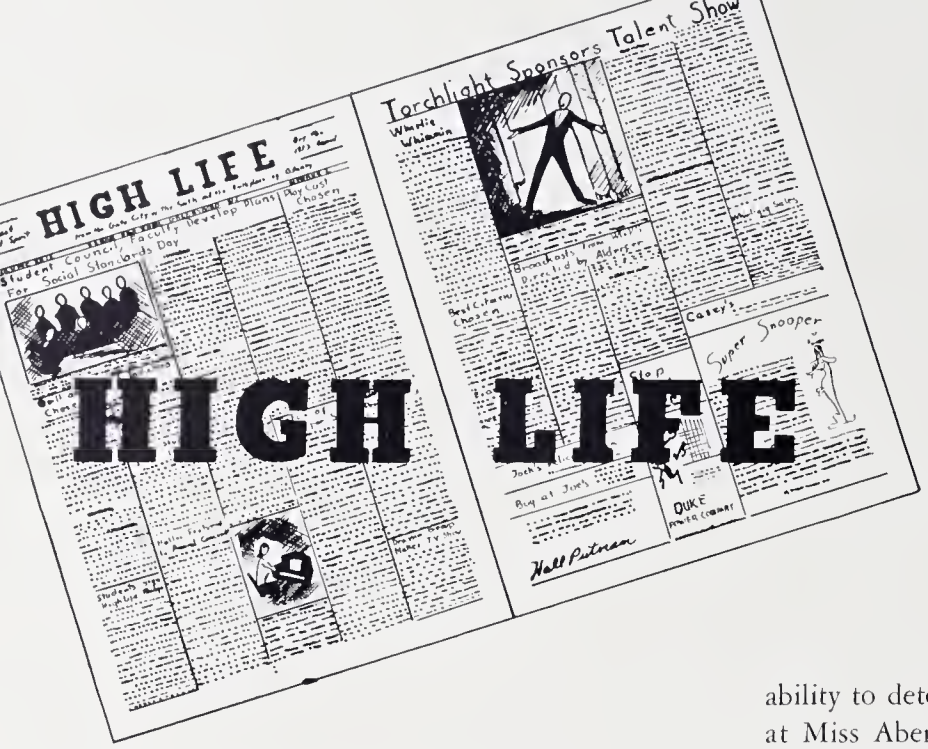
Checking portraits and lists of names are junior editors, Stewart Colson and Kitten Barringer; senior editors, Ann Hobbs and Mary Ruth Mitchell; and sophomore editors, Dava Cashwell and Vivian Morgan. Checking on the checkers is the associate editor, back to camera.

Future competitors for the Pulitzer Prizes are, top, the Whirligig literary editors: John Sauvajot, Bob Lavietes, Ann Hunter, Margot Hammond, Don Patterson. Below: "You've got your picture in the yearbook! Now get out and sell some ads," says Martha Jordan to her business staff. They are Tricia Booth, Bess Bach, Barbara Jamieson, Joe LeBauer, Martha Jordan, Kelly Maness, Michael Temko, David Dillard.

Life and Times of G. H. S.



Looking back over a grueling, grand year the High Life staff must sometimes wonder that they survived Cordelia's looney laugh, Alfred's daily dilemmas with David. Proud of Martha's piercing editorials, amazed at Lois' ability to detect mispelled words, astonished at Miss Abernethy's patience, and thankful for Mr. Routh's understanding of financial woes, they snatched bits of news here, begged an ad there, and somehow published their handiwork designed to mirror the spirit of their sympathizers and subscribers, the student body.

Who won last Saturday's game? Who won the Sophomore elections? Who did this, who said that, who's going with whom? Thanks to the High Life staff, we are kept abreast of all goings-on. Reading around the table, starting at the left: Joan Osborne, Lois Duncan, Alfred Williams, Fran Hosley, Joanne Gourley, Marilyn Neerman and Dick Frank.

"My, but it's wild!" shouts camera-happy Carter. Martha seems pleased, but more subdued in her appreciation.

Quill and Scroll

A pen and a bottle of ink is the trademark and the lifeline of Quill and Scroll, national honor society for high school journalists. All outstanding contributors to school publications, the literary members of the local O. Henry Chapter turned their eloquent phrases into puns and fun at their party, second semester. All good-natured rivalry between Whirligig and High Life was forgotten at each meeting when both staffs collaborated on jokes and English themes. Walter Spearman, head of the journalism school of the University of North Carolina, added a celebrity's touch and talent at Quill and Scroll's annual assembly program in March. Miss Abernethy advised this group of "printer's devils."

Book Lovers Go Exploring Here

Library Club

The day of a good book at Senior was often busier than that of a student. For it no sooner came in, got a cleaning by some member of the library club—student assistants—than out it went again. Librarians Herring and Bost and library assistant Geraldine Payne were always busy finding references, checking out books, answering questions. Library club meetings came every week, too. High spot of their year was their Book Week assembly program, which brought to Senior the high honor of a speech by authoress Elizabeth Gray Vining about her experiences as a royal tutor in Japan.

Versatility and Harmony Characterize the Choir

The Senior High School Choir, "sponsored" by "Tuttle's Pork and Beans," showed their superior showmanship in "Where But in America?" The December production was a big success, with the Queen's Men harmonizing on "Dry Bones," girls dancing to "Singing in the Rain," and the whole group singing selections from the "Song of America." Miss Tuttle offered a prize for the best act, and it was won by Virginia Redhead, accompanist. Dickie Chalk, Choir president, planned programs and made introductions when the group sang for local clubs. Again this year the Choir was repaid for their hard work by a Superior rating at State Contest.

These Musicians Are Masters of Melody

The string ensemble, composed of outstanding orchestra members, disensses the entertainment for a request performance.

The first orchestra "performance" this year was a party for new members. In November the State Clinic was held in Greensboro, and G.H.S. was host to high school musicians from all over the state. In December the Orchestra-Choir production, "Where, but in America?" was a huge success. Following closely was the first orchestra assembly which featured such popular numbers as "Dancing in the Dark" and Overture to "The King and I." After Christmas several players went to Boone to participate in the All-State Orchestra. From February until April members worked feverishly to prepare music for the State Contest and their second assembly program. The year ended, as it began, with a "bang-up" party for the entire orchestra.

Members of the Orchestra appear here after one of their concerts. "Make that entrance, flutes!" demands perfectionist Hazelman, band director, as Mr. Arner, assistant director, hopefully awaits the result.

"Fall in!" shouted Drum Major Armstrong, and one hundred and twenty individuals scrambled into place. Under the new military system no tardiness was tolerated, and offenders were tried before the Band Court, a jury elected by band members.

Besides playing for the six home football games, the marching band played for two out-of-town high school games, the Christmas parade, Duke-Carolina game, and a professional game at Durham. The concert band also had numerous appearances including three night concerts, two chapel programs, and the state music contest held in April in Greensboro.

Since "all work and no play, etc.," also applies to bands, the steak supper for seniors, an event awaited hungrily for three years, brought the honored guests in full force to enjoy their last rollicking band party as band members.

Whirlie Nine Has Satisfactory Season

The Whirlie baseball team under the careful coaching of Coach Julian Smith wound up the season with a record of six and five. The pitching duties were performed mostly by Jimmy Murphy and Franklin Davis, with Bill Whedbee doing most of the catching. Rodney Edwards, Don Tidwell, Jimmy Murphy, and Tommy Settlemyre led the team in batting, while Sam Hudson, Joe Phillips, Gary Reynolds and Bobby Showfety were outstanding in fielding. Rodney Edwards was presented the Hoyt Boone Baseball trophy for his outstanding performance throughout the year.

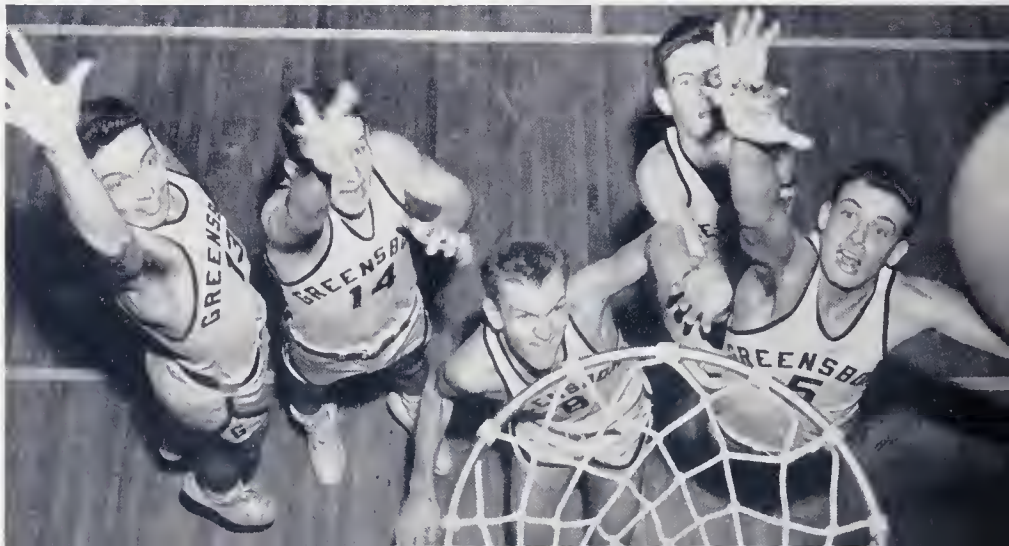
Whirlies Finish Third in AAA Conference

The Greensboro Whirlies ended the regular season with a record of 13 victories and 7 defeats. Still a homeless team (no gym of their own until next year) they played all their home games at Guilford College. Among those victories of the early season was a win over Raleigh High School, who last year defeated the Whirlies in the state finals by two points. Co-captain Paul Stanton's drive in shots couldn't be stopped, while Co-captain Buster Jenkin's and Tommy MacDonald's long set shots were unmatchable. Lanky Phil Crockett and hustling Billy Wolfe always got their share of rebounds from the boards. Charlie Hester, Ed Harris, Don Patterson, and Joe LeBauer, along with the other reserves, could always be counted on for backing up the starting five. They ended their season in third place.

Showing some of the verve and vitality that made them key players all season are, left to right, Scott, forward; LeBauer, forward; Hester, center; Odom, forward; Bell, guard.



Though home games had to be played at Guilford College again this season, the practice sessions that made Stanton such an effective ball carrier, and his team mates so versatile and handy, went on regularly in our own gym.

Five players work out in a practice session to develop the smooth strategy that paid off so often all season. They are Wyrick, guard; Scurlock, center; Price, guard; Jenkins, guard; and Stanton, forward.

Coaches Bob Jamieson and Julian Smith go into a huddle with manager Wallace Freemon over the season's score book.

Stanton concludes that the only way out of this surrounding Gray High team is up. He made the two points, incidentally.

"Victory! Victory!" That's Their Cry

Cheerleaders

Energetic stunts and yells of the cheerleaders fired student spectators at all ball games to a more enthusiastic support of their teams. Cheerleaders also took the responsibility of decorating goal posts for home football games. Their unfaltering spirit, regardless of weather, kept them in the lead whenever ardent school spirit helped most.

The Whirlies show their close team spirit as they huddle before the game to pray the Lord's Prayer.

Whirlie Eleven Improves Under New Split-T

Football

Coach Bob Jamieson junked his double-wing formation in favor of the Split-T, but the Whirlies used nearly all of the season getting to feel at home in the new formation. After five consecutive losses at the beginning of the season, the Whirlies won four of their last six games. One of their victories was a 6-0 win over Reynolds High, which went on to capture the State Class AAA Championship.

The Whirlies squeezed a 7-6 victory at Asheville to start their spurt of victories, putting new life and energy into the team. Standouts on defense were Kirkman, a fine linebacker; Marshall, the husky lineman; and Scott, a speedy half-back. These sparked the offensive team: Wyrick, end; Yost and Rayle, quarterbacks; Walke, center; Canoy, tackle; Davis, back; Cameron, guard, and Chandler, tackle.

These Girls Work Hard at Playing . . .

Girls' Athletics

Approximately thirty-five girls were not only active in sports but in money-making also. They sponsored the sale of sweat shirts bearing the name Greensboro Senior High in order to raise money for new basketball uniforms. They always looked forward to the North Carolina Sports Day held in High Point, where the Whirlettes took second place last year. Another important event is the All-State Playday at Woman's College, which is attended by the AAA sportsters each spring. The tennis team is new on Miss Gabriel's "sports cavalcade." Their fast-moving games attracted many of Senior High's avid tennis fans. One of the most enjoyable basketball tournaments was played with the D. O. Girls. Each team won a game, ending the fun with a tie.

The bench seems to be as active in this softball game as the players. Even umpire Sylvia Smith looks happy over a strike she is about to call on Peggy Capps.

SOCIAL

So that our character might not be distorted by too much work and no play, we turned from lessons and service to the social side of life. At the bonfire pep rally, our vigorous yells blended into one mighty victory cry. "Club" offered us the chance to catch up on the latest news. Looking like a page out of "Seventeen" we made that big dance one to remember always. These good times improved our personality and further developed our character.

Youth Center

The Youth Center officers are right behind the eight ball, but seem to be enjoying themselves. They are Ben Nita Black, Secretary; Bill McCormick, Director; Virginia Redhead, Treasurer; Ann Carlson, Vice-President; Tot Wagner, President.

The "Loft" Is Centered Around the Youth of Senior

A bang-up membership drive started the year off as a good beginning. Kelly Maness won a super-speed car for selling the most Youth Center memberships. After several years as director Norman Dalton left Greensboro and many sad teenagers, who really hated to see him go. However, the Loft managership was taken over by Bill McCormick, who lived up to every member's expectations. The carnival and square dance were two main fall events, along with the Saturday Night Club, which continued throughout the year. High-schoolers were frequently seen at the popular Youth Center, playing pool or ping-pong, watching television or eating to their heart's content (or their pocketbook's limit). The Youth Center drew its biggest crowds, however, at the "open house" held after each home football game and at the really big dances—Mid-winter and Senior Prom.

It was a very happy fifth birthday for the Loft, and Ann and Tot celebrated by cutting the birthday cake. There was almost enough cake to go around.

Year-Round Dances

The Annual Junior-Senior Prom, held in the gaily decorated Youth Center, was a wonderful affair. Here the "figure" is being formed by Superlatives and their dates.

Sponsored by the Kiwanians, the Key Club continued its services for Senior High this year. The publication of a useful student directory, an annual affair for the Key Clubbers, topped the list of services performed this year. More and more responsibility has fallen on the shoulders of the ever-willing boys and their adviser, Gay W. Hensley. Selling student tickets for the football and basketball games, and printing a basketball program for home games boosted school spirit. As usual, the beautiful Christmas tree in our hall was sprayed and decorated by the Key Club. Late in the spring of 1952 several members of the club attended the state convention in Asheville. After intense discussions on various school projects, the boys were honored at a banquet and a dance. All year the members enjoyed their weekly dinner meetings at the Y.M.C.A., and each week two members represented them at the Kiwanis Club luncheon.

Monogram Club

Few things make a boy prouder than to "sport" a monogram on his sweater. Only the best of our athletes make up the Monogram Club. Each year the members welcome carefully selected new members. Qualifications for membership are few, but they are difficult to achieve. A member must have won a monogram by excelling in some special sport: football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, swimming, track, or tennis. He must believe in good sportsmanship, and he must have good character traits. This year, headed by Paul Stanton, President; and Mr. Manzi, Adviser; the club met each week in the field house to discuss ways to promote sportsmanship. They also planned a project to help increase the Athletic Fund. The Monogram Club has certainly been a worthwhile organization—a credit to Senior High.

Senior Hi-Y

All the dignified young men you saw this year around the halls wearing red triangular pins with gold crosses were probably Hi-Y boys. On Monday nights at the Y.M.C.A. all twenty-five members of the Senior group met to carry out their extensive program. Ushering at home football games, raising money to contribute to World Missions, attending dinner meetings and the annual convention for all Southern states were only a few of their numerous activities.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y, along with its elder brother, the Senior Hi-Y, has completed another successful year. The members sold Christmas cards, which helped them with their annual donation of twenty-five dollars to the World Missions. They held their meetings every Monday night and had various programs with educational movies and interesting speakers. Often the members enjoyed a dinner in addition to their regular business meeting. However, these get-togethers were by no means all business, for they wouldn't have been complete without the ping-pong battles.

Those sophomores really got around this year. Backing up the club every Monday night at the Y.M.C.A. was Joe Rockwell, President. Selling fluorescent house numbers in the neighborhood was the major money-making project for the Hi-Y boys. Several boys attended the South-wide convention at Winston-Salem. About once every six weeks their meetings were all the more popular because they were dinner meetings, usually ending with exciting pool games.

Sophomore Y-Teens

This year being a sophomore Y-Teen meant feeling pretty important. The meetings were interesting and projects and parties were fun. The fall dance and the party for the adviser, Mrs. Bailey, who left Senior at mid-term, were the top social events. Having a conference in Greensboro with selected representatives from various other Y-Teen clubs over North Carolina and a meeting with other city Y-Teen officers helped this club to feel its importance and its usefulness. The best program of the year was one on Korea at which a young Korean lady talked about her country's life and customs.

The Y-Teen officers are Vivian Morgan, Vice-President; Barbara Rector, Program Chairman; Chattie Sartin, President; Nancy Sue Waddell, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mariner Scouts Train for Summer Cruises

Several members stand at attention for a flag raising ceremony aboard ship.

"Flying Dutchman" Troop

Several weekends at Old Mill Camp convinced the girls of the "Flying Dutchman" that "there's no place like home." Cooking out is okay when you're working on a camp activity badge, but as a permanent set up—the girls take electricity unanimously. The Old Mill outings and weekend trips to Nag's Head and High Rock were exciting previews of the summer cruise. Planned to the last detail by the Mariners and Skipper Claudia McMillian, the trip was made possible by the fund-raising efforts of the girls.

These Mariner officers seem to handle a canoe very well—on land. Reading from port to starboard: Tricia Booth, Skipper; Kitten Barringer, Treasurer; Henrietta Reed, Secretary; Fran Hosley, First Mate. Look out, Hiawatha, here they come!

"Joseph Conrad" Troop

"Anchors aweigh!" the Joseph Conrad girls will be shouting in August as they start on their cruise. This highlight of the year is the inspiration needed to prod the girls into greater efforts as they earn their ranks and badges in first aid, navigation, knot-tying, and many other fields. Under the able leadership of "Sis," more formally known as Mrs. Anne Cole Boyd, the girls have made trips to Old Mill Camp to sample the water and to practice for their sea voyage.

Rainbow choir members and officers relax after their bi-monthly meeting at the Masonic Temple. After the meeting, consisting of the traditional Rainbow ritual, light refreshments are often served.

Rainbow

The local chapter of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, sponsored by local Eastern Star Chapters and Masonic Lodges, is a comparatively new organization. Although charter members were first initiated in May, 1952, the young group promises to become an outstanding order in the community. Christmas entertainments for those at the Masonic Home, serving at Eastern Star dinners and preparing skits for Eastern Star meetings were among the service projects. A highlight in the year's events was the Grand Assembly, held near Lake Junaluska in June, 1952, where several hundred girls from all over the state met for both work and frolic.

Rainbow officers are Annette Patton, Hope; Jerry Robinson, Worthy Associate Adviser; Peggy Gibbs, Worthy Adviser; Ann Mansfield, Charity.

Order of DeMolay

Greensboro DeMolays put out the welcome mat for eighty-five delegates at the Piedmont District Convention December 27-28. A banquet at the Mayfair Cafeteria preceded the semi-formal Christmas dance which was the main event of the conclave. Local and visiting DeMolays had a gay time dancing to the music of the Desert Knights at the V.F.W. Clubhouse. Next morning the boys attended services at the First Presbyterian Church, in spite of the big night before. Another big event on December 27 was the presentation of $200 to the Cerebral Palsy Fund. DeMolays performed many services for their school and community. To make hot-rod drivers more conscious of safety rules, they issued safety pledge cards to G.H.S. motorists.

The door-to-door sales of light bulbs enabled them to contribute $200 to the Cerebral Palsy Fund.

But the life of a DeMolay is not crowded with all work; here members and dates relax at the club's hayride.

DeMolay officers are, seated, Dean Soots, Master Councilor; standing, Bob Thorburn, Senior Councilor; Charles Mansfield, Scribe; Jim Bynum, Junior Councilor.

Civil Air Patrol

Teenagers with a yen for the "wild blue yonder" got a lot closer to their dream at C.A.P. meetings. There all types of planes, bombs, and guided missiles became as familiar to them as the inside of their lockers. Besides their regular weekly meetings, where they mastered air force manuals on these topics, there were regular meetings every two months with cadets of other nearby towns for discussion of mutual problems. As the C.A.P. is an auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force, every cadet feels a glow of pride in his uniform. Two of the cadets, Dan O'Connor and Johnny Carroll, have already soloed; and many others are getting flying instructions in preparation for solo flights.

Nu Phi Mu

The Nu Phi Mu's are different from all of our other social clubs, since they are a junior branch of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. In the fall new members were installed at a special Founders Day Program, at which a queen was crowned. This year all North and South Carolina Nu Phi Mu's met in Greensboro for a convention at which the local junior chapter served at tea.

Syitt Club

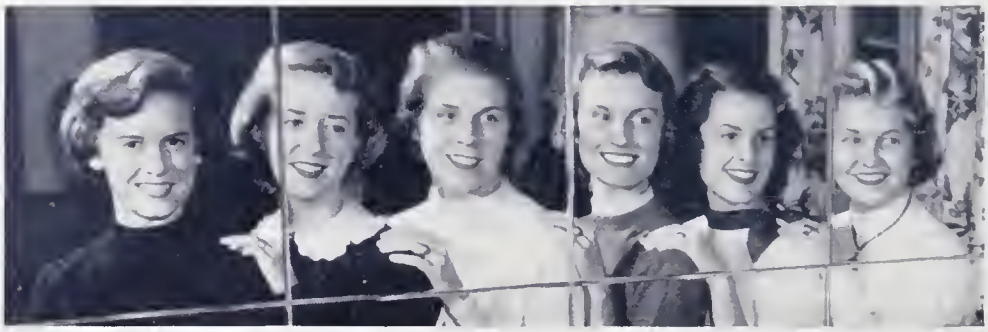
The Syitt Club was formed early in the fall of 1952 by charter members, Bennett Murray, Jim Tunstall, Hal McNeely, Dick Chalk, and Donnie Evans. From time to time, others were invited to join the club, until a quota of twenty-five was reached.

The club's first activity was a banquet at the S & W Cafeteria to welcome the new members into the organization. Various social functions were held throughout the year. During the Christmas holidays the club provided a needy family with food, clothing, and toys for the children. The Syitts are pleased with their new club and feel that they may look forward to many successful years.

The big Syitts are Hal McNeely, Secretary; Hugh Sample, Treasurer; Jimmie Armstrong, President; Gary Sheffield, Vice-President.

"One for all, and all for one" toast the mighty Syitts.

D. D. T. Club



"Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest of them all?" It may well be a D.D.T. officer. They are, left to right, Virginia Redhead, President; Jackie Scott Carlton, Vice-President; Sara Walters, Secretary; Susanne Chamblee, Youth Center Representative; Gail Glascock, Publicity Chairman; Dottie Crews, Treasurer.

Filled with pep and energy, the D.D.T.'s sunned and swam at Ocean Drive Beach to start their year. Greensboro was the setting, early in the fall, for a rollicking scavenger hunt. The long-dreaded initiation took place soon after, as blushing D.D.T.'s in union suits rooted at a football game.

The most gala event of the year was the Christmas dance at the Greensboro Country Club and breakfast afterwards at Virginia Redhead's. Honor guests were Mrs. Newman, club adviser, and her husband. Chalk up another successful year for the fun-loving D.D.T.'s!

Waving the club's name, left, the new members cheer our football team. What are union suits doing in this part of the country?

G. W. I. Club

The first event after the unforgettable beach trip was the hilarious initiation which took place in front of the Carolina Theater on a Saturday night. New members, dressed in pajamas, were seen toothbrushing the sidewalk. The G.W.I.'s tried to make this year one filled with worthy projects. The fall meetings served a dual purpose. Helpful suggestions and words of wisdom were frequently offered by Mrs. Hansen, their new adviser. During the Christmas season they had a progressive dinner and worked in cooperation with the Welfare Department to make a needy family's holidays the happiest ever. The highlight of all the social functions was the spring dance. While plans for future fun and frolic were made, they worked dexterously, making joke books for the Red Cross.

Les Soeurs Club

Les Soeurs believed that the highlight of the club's existence was having fun—the fall carnival, Christmas floating dinner, spring festivities, and a Plantation Club dinner, with dates, to top it off. And of course the Thursday night meetings! These meetings, besides postponing homework, helped the members to get even better acquainted, and to really live up to their name. And what went on at these meetings! With twenty-one girls plus "Gabe" all talking at once, there was never a dull moment. And everyone forgot pounds and complexion when refreshments were served.

Initiation outfits of green and white amused the public at the S & W Cafeteria and later at the Rocky Mount-Greensboro game. Besides having a Pollyanna among themselves, the club gave Christmas gifts to a needy family by way of helping others have a good time, too. Although school is out, the Les Soeurs' fun hasn't ended, for their summer beach trip is yet to come.

L. S. P. Club

Somebody mention a hayride? Must have been a L.S.P. talking about that hayride at Pemberton's with everyone rushing to Barbara Kennerly's house then for refreshments. For Thanksgiving the girls shined up their halos and took food and clothing to a less fortunate family. The Christmas dance and Plantation breakfast was the year's biggest moment for "the little saints." Even aching feet and heavy eyelids could not mar so wonderful a night.

The chaos and torture of exams were all forgotten as soon as they were over, for who could think about exams with a progressive dinner and "sleeping" party scheduled next? Now as a just reward for hard work and hard play, the beach party is an awaited thrill for every L.S.P.

Venettes Club

The Venettes began their fourth year with a tea for new members. This first party of the year was planned as a "get acquainted" celebration. The girls enjoyed lending a helping hand to a family at Thanksgiving, especially since they combined the business of collecting the food with the pleasure of a scavenger hunt.

As soon as the spring thaw came, the girls put into action their carefully laid plans for a hayride. Miss Hall, the faculty adviser, who is just "one of the girls," was an important part of all plans, parties, preparations, and projects. With so many experiences to remember, the scrapbook, a new creation in the capable hands of Chattie Sartin, is beginning to bulge with accounts of club activities.

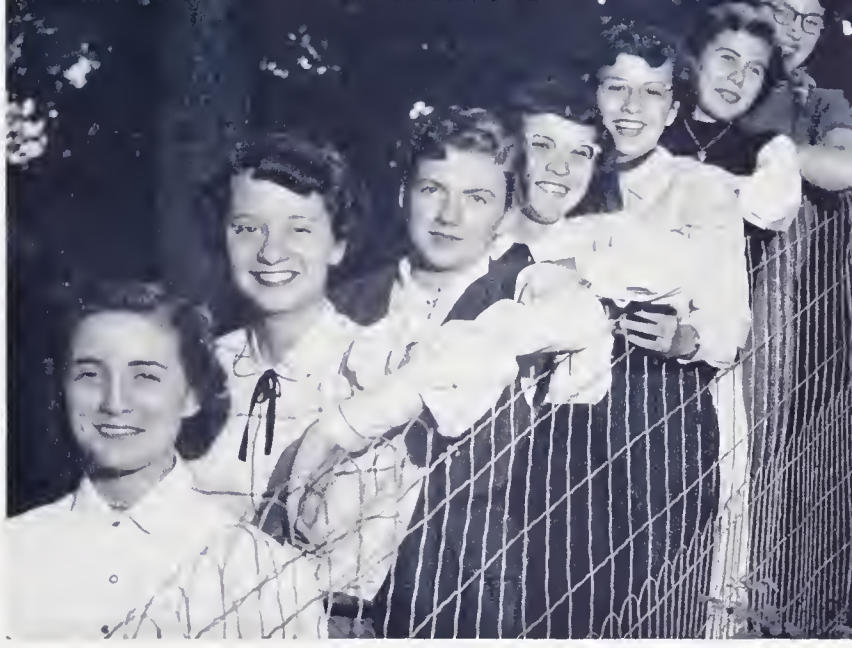
W. S. T. Club

If any W.S.T. were asked, "Where were you on the night of November 8, 1952?" the reply would be quickly given, for all these girls and many other Senior High students take delight in remembering the W.S.T. dance at the King Cotton Ballroom. The tea for new members also stands out vividly in W.S.T. minds. Held in October, this first real "taste" of club life was a thrill for new members and a pleasure for their hostesses and older "sisters." As a fitting climax to a dramatic year, the W.S.T.'s are looking forward to their summer beach trip. Accounts of these and many other activities are being kept in a scrapbook, to remind the girls of the happy experiences of club life.



The officers of the W.S.T.'s are Patty Mumford, Youth Center Representative; Marilyn Park, Social Chairman; Marion Thompson, Publicity Chairman; Bess Bach, Treasurer; Joyce Steele, Secretary; Lila Ann Tiee, Vice-President; Mary Hargrove, President.

"What will Daddy say?" gasps Jennie Lou Wyrick. Seems as though there's gonna be a hot time in the old town tonight if Chief Moon Wyrick finds out who turned in that alarm. Below: Teddy bears and bottles identify these girls as baby W.S.T's.

Senior High's most popnlar couple, lovely Ann Wrenn, onr May Qneen, and school President Bobby Clark.

May Day . . . 1952

May Day 1952 dawned crystal clear. All day there was excitement in the air, originating with the queen and her attendants, spreading into the social clubs, physical education classes, and even reaching some members of Brooks School. For months Miss Nicholson, Miss Gabriel, and Mrs. Newman had been three queen bees in a buzzing hive. The last minute preparations were hurriedly being made by the loyal "behind the scenes" workers.

Finally the awaited hour arrived, and the band, directed by David Arner, sent the notes of "Pomp and Circumstance" adrift on the May breeze. Once again children and grownups alike watched in wonder the age-old festivities of May Day.

To entertain the huge throng in attendance, the members of the court do the minuet. Below: Some old timers from Brooks School show their Senior High neighbors how the dance should be executed.

These little rag dolls are from our school nursery. After Santa took them out of his sack, they cut loose with the "Rag Doll Rag."

Gift of the Class of 1952, Mr. Routh's portrait is here framed by the class superlatives. The presentation of the portrait was a thrilling end of the Class Day program.

Class Day Summarizes

Each Graduation Class' Biggest Moments

Class Day tries to show as many facets of Senior life as possible. Here the gaiety of the band and drum majorettes, above, contrasts immediately afterward with sadness as Larry Bateman, left, appears for the last time to express his team's gratitude for the student body's ardent support.

Superintendent Smith and Principal Routh hand out long-desired diplomas to those leaving the hallowed halls of Senior.

Graduation—Perfect Climax of Three Vital Years

Dear Advertisers and Sponsors,

The Sponsors of any production are indispensable individuals. The Whirligig has been fortunate in having unusually interested and generous ones.

"Certainly I'll take an ad." "I'd love to sponsor you." These ready replies have assured the publication of our 1953 Whirligig, the playbill of a hit performance.

For you, our wonderful sponsors and advertisers, we, the cast, join with the student body in a hearty round of applause.

Many thanks, The 1953 Yearbook Staff

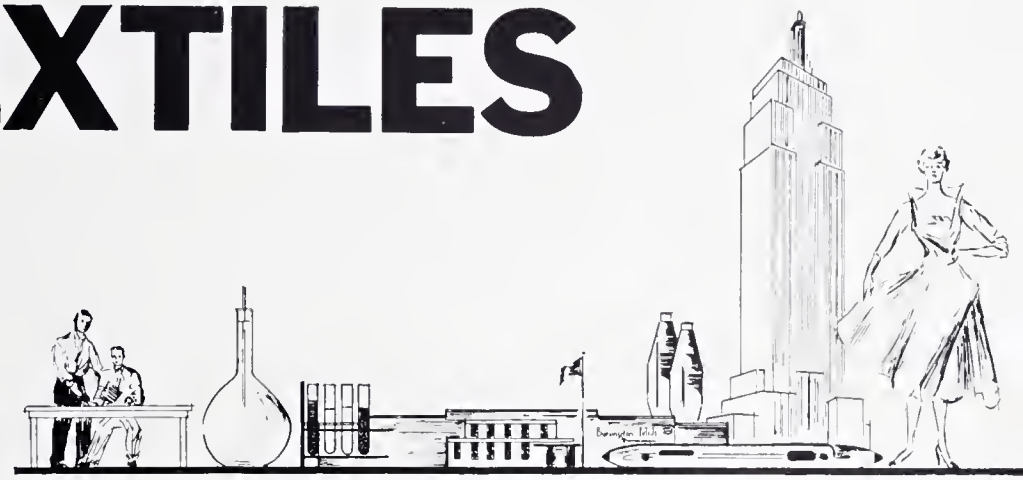
THERE IS A FUTURE IN

TEXTILES



MANUFACTURING • DESIGNING • DEVELOPMENT • RESEARCH • MERCHANDISING • FASHION

The world's oldest manufacturing industry—textiles—is today one of our most exciting and challenging industries, producing revolutionary textile products with qualities which men have sought for centuries. Man-made fibers, new products of the chemist's test-tube, have been a major contributor to this textile progress.

A small textile producer in 1923, Burlington Mills believed in the future of rayon—an early man-made fiber. In the past 28 years Burlington has become a leader in the development and production of beautiful, durable and high-quality filament, spun and knit synthetic fabrics. From one plant with approximately 200 employees, our Company has grown to include 73 manufacturing plants in 43 communities of eight states and four foreign countries. Employing 34 000 people, Burlington is today the world's largest producer of synthetic fabrics, and it is a recognized leader in the designing, development, research, merchandising and fashion fields as well as manufacturing.

If you are a young man or woman looking for a place in industry, we think you should consider textiles—and Burlington. It can hold a bright future for the person with the willingness to learn, ability to work, and the natural interest in this fascinating and competitive field.

Interested in weaving?

Indians weave baskets . . . writers weave plots . . . we weave modern fabrics for Americans. In our type of weaving . . . as in good baskest and good stories . . . good results can be achieved only by strict attention to fundamentals. That is a basic principle with us. Every fabric begins with a solid and practical foundation of quality. To do this job, and do it right, we need ambitious young people to help us. We are always glad to discuss opportunities in the textile business with those genuinely interested.

Remember, way back there on page 7 we said this book would show you, dear reader, how well-rounded our education is here at Senior. Well, this is our final proof: lower right, the curriculum holds us spell-bound; above, the extra-curricular activities—food and the world series—fascinate us; and left, the reward of work all done and time left to play—an angelic feeling!
